SIR COLIN CAMPBELL.—The well informed editor of the Philadelphia Press has the following condensed account of Sir Colin Campbell :

Sir Colin Campbell will get his peerage, and deserves it, if not particularly for his Indian exploits, for his whole life-time of military service. He is a gallant old man. Sixty-six years ago he was born, of humble parents, in Glasgow, the commercial capital of Scotland, and exactly half a century ago he had the good luck to obtain a commission in the British army. He served in Portugal under "the Duke," and afterward in the unfortunate Walcheran expedition, in which forty thouand soldiers were destroyed by fever in the swamps of | following times and places; the Netherlands. He was repeatedly wounded, and was present at most of the great battles and sieges during the Peninsular campaign, when for five years the Fabian policy of Wellington baffled, and finally beat, the genint of Napoleon, and the valor of his best lieutenants. In 1814–'15 he served in America as an officer in the Rifle brigade. Subsequently he was in active service in Demerara; in the Chinese war of 1842, in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-'9, where he obtained special notice in the commander-in-chief's despatch for his teady coolness and military precision;" subsequently, under the late Sir Charles J. Napier, in India, and, finally, in command of the Highland brigade, in the Crimea. When the Indian war became alarming he quitted England to take chief command of the Anglo-Indian army at twenty-four hours' notice—this, too, at the age of 65, after fifty years of hard service.

SQUAW SLAVES IN UTAH.—The New York Tribune says, an intelligent writer in the train of the Utah Peace Commissioner states that the system of buying and selling Indian woman is carried along the route across the plains among the traders and frontiersmen, as a regular established practice. Almost every white man along this route has an Indian concubine purchased, in the case of young and beautiful horses, though old and ugly ones may be had at a much less cost. Once sold to the whiteman, her Indian relatives renounce all further interest in her, and not merely her person, but her life, is at the disposal of her owner. When a white man gets tired of his slave wife, he ships her off and gets another. The children of these unions are totally neglected by the lathers, and grow up as they may under the care of the mothers. At all the forts along the route, the young officers, settlers, and all who can afford it, keep the Squaws. A Broadway Belle.—Last night a colored boy, probably affected by the intense heat, and desiring to avail himself of the cooling powers of crinoline, donned the wearing apparel of a feminine, and supplying himself with the modern contrivances of cotton padding, presented quite a respectable figure. With a neat gold cross suspended from his neck, and two or three rings tastefully displayed upon his fingers, he cut quite a swell, promenading the upper portion of Broad street. One of the watchmen, not liking the appearance of the "critter," politely escorted this would-be female to the guard | Sheriffalty of your county. BARRELS-In empty Spirits Turpentine barrels we have imitations. nothing new to report. The demand during the week just ended has been meagre, and consequently we have but few tran-actions to report; - the stock in first hands is small, though fully sufficient for present uses. See table for prices. Corron-No change of importance to make in this article. One lot of 65 bales strict middling changed hands on Friday last at 11 cents & B.; since then nothing has been done. CORN MEAL.-Continues to be brought in sparingly, and the market is poorly supplied. In moderate demand, and selling at 85 cents per bushel.

FLOUR .- Since the close of our last review the arrivals per railroad have been rather better, and with a meagre demand from dealers prices have given way 25 cents. In the early part of the week we note sales of two or three parcels at $5 75 a $6 for superfine-mostly at lowest price. disposition to operate, and the market closes inactive at $5 75 for super. See table for quotations of other grades. GRAIN.-We have no important change to report in this market. There have been no arrivals of Corn for two weeks past, and consequently we have no sales to make ;- the stock in dealers hands has become somewhat reduced, though it may be considered fully sufficient for present purposes. In the absence of receipts we cannot give a correct quotation of the market, and our figures in table must be looked upon Lamont. as merely nominal. Oars. No late arrivals, but we note a moderate stock in dealers hands, and only a light demand. Last sale from vessel was at 42 cents per bushel. Peas. The market is moderately supplied at present with Cow, and has ruled quiet for the past week ; prices to J. H. Chadbourn & Co.; with naval stores, &c. tend downward. No receipts or sales that we hear of. We extra lot would obtain highest figure. RICE. For clean G. W. Davis. there is no demand except from the trade, and the supply in store is fully sufficient for present purposes. We quote small sales 34 a 34 cents ? lb., as in quality. HAY .- The market cotinues to be very well supplied, and we notice merely a retail demand. No arrivals during the week, and we refer to quotations in table for last sales. LIME .- Is in heavy stock, and decidedly dull of sale .-Sales from store in the small way at $1 P cask.

Molasses- There is scarcely any demand for Cuba, and we notice a moderate supply on market. We continue former rates, and quote hhds. at 23 a 26 cents per gallon from first hands, according to quantity and quality. POTATOES-Irish remain without change in price. Arrivals moderate, and we quote from carts at 75 a 90 cents per bushel, as in quality.

Prices have store at quotations in table. SALT-Alum is in moderate stock, and scarcely any demand exists. Retails at 25 a 30 cents per bushel. No late arrivals of Liverpool ground, and market almost bare. Last sale was at 71 cents per sack. TIMBER-We have not heard of a single transaction during the past week, and cannot, therefore, give a correct quotation. Millers have a stock on hand sufficient for their immediate use, and do not appear disposed to purchase. FREIGHTS .- Coastwise remain about the same as last re ported; there is a sufficient number of vessels in port to take the produce now offering. See table for rates.

been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Prolessor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out which it restored in greater perfection than it ing the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to. It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance, though some may differ in regard to the ways of loing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desir-
